

Wakefield, Falls Church Meet Tonight

Wakefield High is shooting the works against Group I Falls Church tonight when the Jaquars invade the home court in an attempt to smash Warrior hopes of going the rest of the year undefeated.

Warrior Coach Robinson is trying to stretch his two game winning streak to more respectable lengths and the Jaquars present the biggest challenge to his efforts.

Although Robinson's spirited lads are given an excellent chance of taking the Fairfaxers Wakefield is entering the contest as a definite underdog.

Falls Church's two top threats to Wakefield's happiness are Frank Giambattists and Bob Blake. In an early season battle with neighboring Washington-Lee Giambattists tossed in 11 points while Blake topped him with 13 markers.

Robinson is expected to start Henry Mayo as the number one defensive stalwart while Don Richards is the Warriors' top offensive gunner. It was Richards' long range desperation shot that gave the Warriors their sensational win over George Washington Jayvee last Tuesday in a double overtime thriller.

Warren Watson is another scoring thrust for the Warriors but both Watson and Richards are excellent rebound men. Butch Varden or Tom Head could be inserted into the line-up when the Warriors take to the floor but other probable starters include Ray Regan and Steve Holderness.

John Gibson is a good candidate for lots of action and if the glasses-wearing man can shake off the rustiness induced by a long, broken ankle vacation and continue to play the brand of basketball he displayed Tuesday night a starting assignment could come his way.
